

Charles II (1660-85)

Your father, Charles I, was executed but now you have been invited back to be king.

Start with Clue 17

James II (1685-88)

You follow your brother, Charles as king. You too can remember why your father was executed.

Start with Clue 13

William III (1688-1702)

You rule Holland but you have been invited to rule England with your wife, Mary, the daughter of the last king, James II.

Start with Clue 23

George I (1714-27)

You rule Hanover in Germany but you have been invited to rule England because you are the nearest Protestant relative of the last monarch, Queen Anne.

Start with Clue 21

George III (1760-1820)

You inherit the throne from your father, George II.

Start with Clue 11

George IV (1820-30)

You have been Regent for 10 years during your father's illness. Now you can be king yourself or have you lost all your power?

Start with Clue 14

